"Today upon a bus I saw a lovely Maiden with golden hair;
I envied her...She seemed so gay...And oh, I wished I were so fair.
When suddenly she rose to leave I saw her hobble down the aisle,
She had one foot and wore a crutch, but as she passed, a smile...
Oh, God, forgive me when I whine...I have two feet...The world is mine.

And when I stopped to buy some sweets, the Lad who served me had such charm;
He seemed to radiate good cheer, his manner was so kind and warm.
I said, "It's nice to deal with you, such courtesy I seldom find."
He turned and said, "Oh, thank you sir!" And then I saw he was blind...
Oh, God, forgive me when I whine...I have two eyes...The world is mine.

Then, walking down the street I saw a Child with eyes of blue.
He stood and watched the others play; It seemed he knew not what to do.
I stopped a moment, then I said, "Why don't you join the others dear?"
He looked ahead without a word...And then I knew he could not hear...
Oh, God, forgive me when I whine...I have two ears...The world is mine.

With feet to take me where I'd go, with eyes to see the sunset glow,
With ears to hear what I should know, I'm Blessed indeed...
The world is mine. Oh, God forgive me when I whine."

Naked stands the forests, shivering in the northern November winds; anxiously awaiting the comforting blanket of snow soon to come. November has been a month of much activity as the 1969 season nears its final stages.

GAME NEWS: In previous Beacons it was mentioned that the possibility of good Coho and Trout fishing may be right at our front door, without our fully realizing it. These suspicions are now confirmed. Late last month, yours truly, Phil Gregg, caught a 9% pound, 29 inch Brown Trout off Beaver Haven's dock. This would have been mentioned in last month's Beacon but absolute identification was not established until a couple weeks later, when Ralph Morrill, of Traverse City, caught another one in the same vicinity. This quickly aroused the interest of Perry Getliff, of St. James. Perry teamed up with Ralph and before the day ended, Perry had landed three Coho Salmon and Ralph had two. Actually, this was late in the season for good fishing, so perhaps next year St. James Harbor will offer some real sport for the angler, now that we know what is out there.

The opening of the 1969 deer season found over 500 hunters in the woods. 644 was the total for the end of the season and this number is a record unsurpassed in all previous years. The final tally of deer taken was 71 bucks, 46 does and 50 fawns. Locally, the most successful of the Island hunters was Walt Wojan and his son Jimmy, who each got a nice buck opening morning. Walt a nine point and Jim a four point.

The Annual Hunters Banquet went off well with a record attendance of hungry hunters.
John Strahan, of Riverdale, presented a very interesting movie of Polar Bear hunting in the Arctic Regions.

GOVERNOR MAKES ISLAND VISIT: When it was first learned that Governor Milliken was to visit the Island, the few Island Republicans were alerted to plan a program for the event. Jewell Gillespie, suddenly found himself the Island's Republican Chairman and all must admit he did a fine job on short notice.
It should also be noted that this was the first visit by a Republican Governor since the late Chase Osborn in 1911.
A sizable group assembled at the Airport to welcome the Governor and his party who then were given a short tour of the Harbor area before visiting the Beaver Island Community School.
The Governor and his gracious wife, visited each class to say a few words and shake hands with the youngsters. At recess time the Governor removed his coat and went out to play touch football with the boys.
In the enthusiasm of play, the Governor was up-ended but bounced right up to continue the game.
After a reception in the multi-purpost room at the school, the Governor and his party were given a tour of the Museum, where Mr. A. J. Roy gave them a thumb nail sketch of the Island's history and presented them with a copy of "A Child of the Sea".
The motorcade then headed out past Barney's Lake and to Dr. Protar's Tomb before returning to the airport.
The Islanders were impressed with the congeniality of the Governor and his wife, who seemed to thoroughly enjoy their visit. An open invitation is extended for their return anytime.
Those included in the Governor's party were George Weeks, the Governor's Press Aide, Bob Yogas and Art Wieland, of the Associated Press, Arlie Brower, Governor's Aide and the pilots Dave Grave and Bill Graves.

HAT'S OFF: One big problem the Island faced the past season, was having enough places for Island visitors to eat. Our hats are off to Grace Cole, however, for she has gone all out to fill the gap even though at times her "Killearn Inn" was fairly bulging at the seams.
Grace, who specializes in home baked bread and pies and puts a lot of personal care into each meal, deserves considerable credit for her efforts this past season, in meeting the hungry hordes.
We certainly don't want to discredit any of the other eating places, for they all did their share when open.
